

Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program

Free or Low-Cost Services for People with HIV

What is the Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program?

The Ryan White HIV/AIDS Program (RWHAP) is a federal program under the Health Resources & Services Administration (HRSA) that supports a variety of free or low-cost services for people living with HIV (PLWH) in the United States. Eligible PLWH are able to receive medical care, HIV medications, and other support services to help them remain in care and achieve viral suppression. RWHAP services are available to anyone with HIV regardless of insurance, citizenship, and immigration status.

What are the goals of the RWHAP?

- Provide HIV medical care, treatment, and support services for PLWH;
- Help clients achieve viral suppression;
- Reduce or eliminate HIV transmission.

What core medical/supportive services can I access through the RWHAP?
